

A UNIQUE SKILLS
COURSE FOR PEOPLE
INTERESTED IN THERAPY TRAINING

Equilibria, the leading Glasgow psychotherapy centre in Park Circus, is running a unique skills course for people interested in therapy training.

The Certificate in Basic Therapeutic Skills and Interventions will be taught in a 10-week course.

When: Every Thursday
from 1pm to 7pm

From: 12th January - 23rd March
2017 for 10 weeks
(break 16th February)

Where: Equilibria,
11 Park Circus,
Glasgow G3 6AX

No specific pre-entry qualifications or requirements are necessary, but an informal interview will take place to ensure the course is suitable for all applicants.

Those taking part will gain an understanding of the therapeutic process, therapeutic skills and interventions. The course, administered by experienced psychotherapists, will cover the main therapeutic models currently in use, with an emphasis on CBT.

The cost of the course is £1450, with a £250 discount for those booking by the end of October 2016. A Non refundable deposit of £290 is required to confirm a place.
